ON THE Cover

The splendor and majesty of life in the Hawaiian Islands, from ancient times to the exciting and dramatic present, is heralded every night except Tuesday in the lavish musical dinner show "Here is Hawaii," at the beautiful Maui Surf Hotel in Kaanapali.

Featuring well-known Island entertainers Keola Beamer and Audrey Meyers, the production follows the history of the Islands from their explosive geological beginnings. Co-stars Audrey and Keola give exhilarating performances of ancient and modern Hawaiian song and dance, and the show is punctuated with extraordinary special effects, including a tropical rainstorm, snowfall and volcanic eruption. The talented supporting cast of dancers and singers does an outstanding job, and slides and film footage add a fascinating touch of realism to the dramatic effect. Often hailed as Maui's premier dinner show, this stunning production will last in your memory of the Islands for years to come.

Seating begins at 6 p.m. with a superb prime rib dinner served before the show. Reservations are filled very quickly, so it is advised you make yours as early as possible by calling 661-4411.

April

Sunday — April

The public is invited to view Maui Mayor Hannibal Tavares 15th Invitational Art Show, on display today through Friday April 13, on the 9th floor of the County Building located at 20 South High St. in Wailuku. Themed "Maui Folks," the exhibit will focus on that fascinating subject in paintings photographs, prints, ceramics and assemblages. Twenty-on talented Island artists and 11 students from two Maui high schools will be presenting selected artwork.

* * *

While visiting the scenic town of Hana, be sure to see the newly opened Hale Waiwai O'Hana (the House of Treasures of Hana). This museum houses a collection of Hawaiian artifacts strictly from the Hana area, and includes Hawaiian quilts, idols and implements used by the kahuna (priests) of old. Maintained by the Hana Cultural Center, a non-profit organization, admission to the museum is free but a donation is requested. Open from 11 a.m. to 4 p.m. daily except Sunday. Call 248-8622 for more information.

Sunday — April 15

Hui Noeau, a non-profit organization which promotes the visual arts on the Valley Isle, sponsors its annual Open House and Easter Basket Show today from 1-5 p.m. on the beautiful Up Country estate of Kaluanui, located just above the Haliimaile-Baldwin Avenue junction. Displays and demonstrations in all media, including basketry, ceramics, painting, photography, printmaking and weaving will be exhibited, as well as festive entries in the annual Easter Basket Show. Hui Noeau was founded in 1934 and the open house is being presented as part of its 50th birthday celebration. The Kaluanui estate, which holds a 75-year-old Hawaii historic jewel of a home designed by famed Island architect C.W. Dickey, is located at 2841 Baldwin Ave. The lovely, pine-covered property may be reached by taking winding Hwy. 37, then a short side trip along Route 371 through Haliimaile to 390.

Friday — April 27

The Maui Youth Theater, a family-oriented theater for all ages, presents "Jack and the Beanstalk" tonight at 7:30 p.m. at the Puunene Clubhouse on Hwy. 350 (Puunene Road), next to the HC & S sugar mill. This zany cartoon musical adaptation, in which Jack climbs the beanstalk to find a good giant and a tap-dancing goose, continues April 28 and 29 and May 4, 5 and 6. Tickets, $4 for adults and $2.50 for youths and senior citizens, are available by calling 871-7484.

AKAMAI TOURS

Personalized Small Group Tours, Inc.

Maui made its dramatic entrance more than five million years ago, when the tips of two volcanic mountains, rising from a crack in the ocean floor, finally broke the surface of the Pacific Ocean. Today, Maui's volcanoes are extinct or dormant, but the Big Island of Hawaii, the youngest in the Hawaiian Chain, is still growing. The fire goddess Pele, who reigns over Hawaii's volcanoes, is still very active there, evidencing her power with periodic eruptions.

Akamai Tours offers you a one-day tour from Maui to Hawaii to see Madame Pele's home, as well as the rest of this diversely beautiful and fascinating island. For more information and reservations, call Akamai Tours at 871-9551.

Sightsee Beautiful Maui

Maui is an Island of incredible beauty and you can see all of it, even if your time is limited, by taking advantage of the four exciting sightseeing adventures offered by Akamai Tours.

Akamai Tours, with operations also on Oahu and Hawaii, had its humble beginnings in 1975 when two local brothers felt there was a need for a small, personalized van tour. Since then, Akamai has served more than 500,000 visitors, sharing with them the beauty and fascinating history of Hawaii. The name "akamai" (meaning smart, knowledgeable) was chosen for a reason: their driver/guides know the Islands like you know your home town and are able to provide you with the highest quality tours available. Enjoy total air conditioned comfort as you experience the sightseeing thrills of this beautiful Valley Isle.

Akamai Tours offers something for everyone. Tour #1 includes Haleakala, the world's largest dormant volcano, which rises more than 10,000 feet into the sky. At the crater rim, you will visit the National Park Service observatory, which offers fascinating information about this huge crater, and Science City, consisting of several solar observatories. Also included on Tour #1 is lush Iao Valley, home of Iao Needle.

Tour #2 takes you to Heavenly Hana. The incredible natural beauty of the road to Hana should not be missed. Cascading waterfalls, complete with swimming pools at their bases, emanate from every valley, and fresh flowers and fruit abound along the road. Beyond Hana is Seven Pools, a great place for swimming and relaxing (don't forget to bring your swimsuit and towel).

Tour #3 gives you the best of all worlds—a full day on the beach or shopping, the spectacular sunset from atop Haleakala, and dinner in a fine restaurant in central Maui.

Tour #4 gives you the opportunity to see the smaller, western part of Maui. This tour is also full of natural beauty—sugar and pineapple fields, beautiful bays and valleys, and majestic vistas.

Akamai Tours definitely has something for everyone. To arrange your tour to experience magnificent Maui, just call 871-9551.

Jewelry

Claire, The Ring Lady, 858-4 Front St., Lahaina. Watch as uncut stones turn into extraordinary jewelry under the skilled hands of designer Claire Edwards (trained in Italy), aided by her husband, Tom, a gemologist. Pieces designed to match the individual. Extensive opal, precious and semi-precious stone collection taken from their travels. Reasonable prices. Phone 667-9288.

Lahaina Scrimshaw Factory - Pier 49, at two locations in Lahaina at 718 and 845 Front St. and in Kaanapali at Whalers Village and the Maui Marriott Resort. Scrimshaw — the beautiful art of engraving on ivory, shell, and bone — makes a unique and time-honored gift. See the largest selection of scrimshaw in Hawaii at competitive prices, including walrus and mastodon fossil ivory dating back 300 to 3,000 years, elephant and whale's teeth, and more, for men and women. In Lahaina phone 667-9122 and 661-4034 in Kaanapali.

Setay, 834 Front St., Lahaina. Offering exclusive, contemporary original designs in gold and silver, including charms, pendants, earrings, chains, bracelets and rings in Island and other motifs. Catch a happy whale or a famous Maui potato chip (always fresh and no calories!), or take home an elegant rose leaf bracelet. Setay also features unique and beautiful "Swinger Rings," which revolve constantly on miniscule roller bearings, and gift items in pewter, crystal, bronze, porcelain and ceramic. Open daily except Sun. Phone 661-8300.

Art Galleries

Center Art Galleries, in the Hyatt Regency Maui and Maui Marriott hotels, with five galleries on Oahu. An international array of artwork including exclusive original paintings by celebrity artists Red Skelton, Anthony Quinn, Salvador Dali, Elke Sommer and Walter Lantz (creator of Woody Woodpecker). Center Art Galleries is also proud to present an homage to Joan Miro (1893-1983), the father of the abstract movement, covering fifty years of creativity and featuring original paintings, drawings, lithographs and aquatint etchings by an artist many considered a visionary. His works, now thought of as the epitome of sophistication, speak with a childlike simplicity and splendor almost unmatched in this century. Call 667-7466 or 667-2233.

Snorkeling/Scuba Equipment

Capt. Nemo's Ocean Emporium, 700 Front St. & Dickenson, across from the Baldwin House Museum. A full-service diving store specializing in sales, rentals and repairs of scuba and snorkeling gear. # Maui Visitor Services

Send home luscious, Big-Island-grown anthuriums from Kuaola Farms to remind you of your Hawaiian vacation.

Channel 7 is an in-room TV program telling you how best to enjoy Maui. One hour in length, this guide through the Valley Isle gives information on sailing and cruises, luaus, dining, shopping, real estate, sightseeing and various activities. Beginning at 6 a.m. daily, use it to help plan your Maui visit.

First Interstate Bank of Hawaii has 18 branches throughout Hawaii, with 13 Day & Night Tellers waiting to serve you 24 hours a day, 7 days a week. If your bank is First Interstate, or if your bank card has a CIRRUS network emblem on it, look for their Kahului Branch and Lahaina Branch Day & Night Teller for the cash you need. Kahului Branch — 86 Kamehameha Ave. (877-5516), Lahaina Branch — 135 Papalaua (667-9714).

Johnson-Moore Seminars Inc. presents two educational and tax-deductible seminars weekly, Monday through Friday from 8 a.m. to 5 p.m. The Medical-Dental-Legal seminar deals predominantly with malpractice subjects, and features speakers including notable attorney Melvin Belli. The Tax Financial-Investment-Planning presentation includes three certified financial planners as speakers. Relax and enjoy deducting your Hawaiian visit. Rates for singles and couples are available. Registration and information can be obtained daily at the Royal Lahaina Hotel or by calling 661-3611. On Oahu, call 944-3838.

Kuaola Farms, Ltd. Exotic, red, heart-shaped anthuriums are the perfect way to send your love from Hawaii to friends back home, or to remind yourself of your perfect stay in the Islands upon your return. These exquisite, waxen blooms, which are grown on the Big Island of Hawaii, are popular with visitors because they last for weeks after being cut. Kuaola Farms also ships potted, blooming anthuriums. To order, see the ad on page 11 of this issue, or call 959-4565 on the Big Island.

Lahaina-Kaanapali & Pacific Railroad. All aboard this old-fashioned sugarcane train for departures to Pu'ukolii between 9:35 a.m. and 3:05 p.m., Kaanapali between 9:45 a.m. and 3:15 p.m., and Lahaina between 10:20 a.m. and 4:10 p.m. Cross the footbridge over Hwy. 30 to reach the Kaanapali Station or take the jitney round trip from your Kaanapali hotel. Special adventure tours include "Olde Lahaina Town," a popular 3½-hour tour including a voyage aboard a glassbottom boat, a 3-hour tour to the Baldwin Home with a whaling slide show, and a 4½-hour glassbottom boat tour with lunch in Lahaina. Phone 661-0089.

Every year, from about November to May, humpback whales migrate south from the cold waters of Alaska to the warm, tropical waters of the Hawaiian Islands to mate and give birth. When fully grown, they measure about 45 feet long and weigh more than 30 tons, but they are non-aggressive and show no hostility toward man. Slowly nearing extinction, these gentle and intelligent giants of the sea have always played a part in Lahaina's rich history, whether as the object of a whaler's harpoon or the delighted observer's camera.

Pequod Charters, Lahaina. Why fight the crowds for that great whale picture? Sail the Pequod! The Pequod is a spacious and comfortable 40' luxury trimaran offering friendly, personalized charters. Fully equipped for maximum comfort both above and below deck. Discover what trimaran sailing is all about. 3-hour whale watch, $35 per person; half-day sail & snorkel, $35 per person; full day including lunch, $70 per person. Snorkeling gear and instruction provided. Maximum six persons. Also available for extended excursions. Phone 667-6151.

Scotch Mist, Slip #11, Lahaina Harbor. For simple fun and relaxation, there's no better way to spend an afternoon than sailing and snorkeling with Scotch Mist, Maui's oldest private sailing charter service. Their Cal-36 sloop Scotch Mist has been serving Maui's visitors since 1970, and she's ideal for groups of 2-6 passengers who want to get away from the crowd. Scotch Mist redefined sailing charters in Hawaii when their new yacht, Scotch Mist II, arrived in the summer of 1982. This "fast-is-fun" Santa Cruz 50 is the only yacht-for-hire on Maui with a string of racing victories to her credit, including First to Finish in both the 1982 Victoria-Maui Race and 1983 Labor Day Race from Lahaina to Honolulu. Despite her thoroughbred credentials, Scotch Mist II was specially designed and built for charter service out of Lahaina, bringing the thrill of big-boat sailing to the traveler on a small-boat budget. Morning whale watch with continental breakfast (2½ hours) $30 adults, $20 children. Half-day snorkel sail $50; full-day sail $80 on SM I, $85 on SM II. Champagne Sunset Sail $33. All trips include ice cold beverages, snacks, snorkel gear, instruction and underwater camera; full-day sail includes sumptuous deli-buffet lunch. Whichever Scotch Mist you choose, their experience assures you of a safe, memorable nautical adventure. Call 661-0386 for information and reservations.

Seabern Yachts, Lahaina Harbor. Be your own captain and sail around the Islands on your own schedule. Rent their 27', 28', and 36' yachts for a half day, full day or full week if you are a qualified sailor. Moderate prices. Free snorkel equipment, underwater camera, boogie board and surfboard; windsurfer available at $25/day. Call 661-8110 for information.

Skyrider Parasailing. Everyone can experience one of the most exhilarating events offered on this paradise isle — parasailing, the sport of the '80s. No special skills are required to enjoy the spectacular panorama provided from this bird's-eye vantage point. Skyrider Parasailing uses the finest state-of-the-art equipment to assure a safe, fun and exciting thrill that may literally be the high point of your stay on Maui. For those with their heads not "in the clouds," a ride on the Sea Horse water sled puts more splash in your Maui vacation. Located just 3 miles south of Lahaina, next to beautiful Launiupoko Beach Park. Call 871-6231. See Coupons & Offers for $5 off parasailing or $10 off group price on the Sea Horse.

Suntan Special, Slip #7, Lahaina Harbor. In a fair breeze or a whisper, Suntan gets you there first—sail aboard Lahaina's newest Santa Cruz 50′ ocean racer, considered the fastest and strongest production yacht in the world. Start out your day with an exciting 2-hour morning whale watch including complimentary Kona coffee and juice, $30. Half-day sail & snorkel $45, complete with gear, instruction and underwater camera. Full-day sails with lavish deli lunch, $85. Two-hour sunset cruises, $30. Private rates available. Complimentary beverage and Maui chips on all trips. Call 661-0338 or 661-0631 (eves.).

GO Sightseeing

Haleakala. Maui's 10,023-foot volcano. Leave very early in the morning to start your trip, as it takes about 1½ hours to drive from Kahului to the summit, and the sky often clouds up after 10 a.m. Stop at the park headquarters, a mile past the entrance to the park, to pick up a map guide and other material. There are two observatories atop the volcano: The Haleakala Visitor Center, and the Puu Ulaula Visitor Center. Interesting exhibits explain the crater's features and formation. Tours available or call Avis Rent a Car at 871-4471 (Kahului Airport) or 661-4588 (Kaanapali Airport). Two great Haleakala touring options: enjoy 38 miles of safe bicycle pleasure-coasting from Haleakala Crater to the sands of the Pacific Ocean with Cruiser Bob's Haleakala Downhill (call 667-7717 for reservations), or take an unforgettable horseback trip to the crater floor with Pony Express Tours (call 667-2202).

Hana. The road to Hana is well-known for its waterfalls, lush bamboo forests and coastline vistas. It takes approximately three hours to reach Hana from Kahului, so it is a good idea to call Hana Gardenland for road and weather information (248-8975) and start early. Don't miss the Waianapanapa and Waiomao caves, both surrounded by local legends. Enjoy a picnic lunch in secluded Hana, take a dip in Hana Bay, or explore the quaint Hasegawa General Store and the Hana Ranch store. Then drive a bit farther to the O'he'o Gulch. Park just beyond the bridge and walk down the trail near the Seven Pools, which pour from one into another, into the ocean. If interested in staying for awhile, accommodations are available. Call 248-7727.

Visit Oahu or the Big Island with Akamai Tours

Leaping porpoises and helpful killer whales as well as lovely Island maidens are part of the fascinating show at Sea Life Park, just one of the popular visitor attractions you'll see on Akamai Tours' one-day Oahu tour.

Don't pack, then check out of your hotel, fly to another island, check in at your next hotel, unpack, and finally go sightseeing. Go sightseeing for the day on either Hawaii or Oahu with an Akamai Tours' One-Day Tour!

Akamai Tours operates tours daily from Maui to either Hawaii or Oahu. On Hawaii, you will enjoy Akamai's Deluxe Circle Island Tour, a 260-mile "See-It-All" tour around the largest island in the Hawaiian Chain. Visit the quaint fishing village of Kona, the coffee and macadamia nut orchards on the slopes of Mauna Loa, and the Volcanoes National Park, where Kilauea Volcano has been erupting periodically over the past two years. There are also orchid and anthurium nurseries, and the Parker Ranch, one of the world's largest cattle ranches.

On Oahu, you will visit Pearl Harbor, where World War II started for the United States, presently the site of the Arizona Museum and Memorial which were built to honor the 1,102 men still aboard that mighty battleship. You will also see downtown Honolulu, Hawaii's capitol. Then it's on to Sea Life Park, an ocean playground for both people and the marine denizens.

It's so easy to spend a day on either Hawaii or Oahu. There is an Akamai Tours representative with you all the time except during your deluxe jet flight between islands. For more information and reservations, call 871-9551.

New Champagne Made on Maui

Many fine restaurants on the Valley Isle are now serving a new product made right here on Maui — Blanc du Noirs, a tasty, light champagne.

Produced by the Tedeschi Vineyard and Winery at Ulupalakua, on the slopes of Haleakala, this 1981 vintage has been fermented in the bottle the traditional French way. First released in December, it follows 10 years of experimentation with grape varieties and production.

It has been well-received by the local food and beverage industry, and has become quite popular with both visitors and residents. Only 1,800 cases of Blanc du Noirs will be coming onto the market this year, making it even more of a treasure.

For those visiting Maui's lovely Up Country, a stop at the Tedeschi Vineyard and Winery is well worth it. There is a tasting room in their converted nineteenth-century jailhouse where Maui Blanc, a dry pineapple wine also produced by Tedeschi, can be sampled.

Fujiyama Japanese Restaurant

If you enjoy Japanese cuisine or are interested in trying it for the first time, we highly recommend Fujiyama Japanese Restaurant, located in the heart of Lahaina in the Lahaina Shopping Center, just off Front St. This quaint and cozy restaurant is well-known for its generous portions of tasty and authentic Japanese food.

There's a sushi bar just like those found in Japan (sushi is a vinegar-flavored rice and seafood appetizer), where your choice is artistically put together right in front of you. Try tuna, or for something really different, tako (octopus) sushi. Other appetizers include kani sunomono (crab with pickled cucumber) and sashimi (sliced fresh raw fish).

Fujiyama's very popular combination dinners feature teriyaki beef or chicken with shrimp tempura, or their shabu shabu — thinly-sliced prime beef cooked in a delicious broth and served with fresh vegetables and tasty dipping sauce. Complete dinners include soup, vegetable salad, rice and tea, and there are also many ala carte selections on the menu.

Exotic cocktails such as the "Fujiyama" or "Samurai" are served, or you can sample a glass of plum wine or hot sake.

Fujiyama Japanese Restaurant is open for lunch from 11 a.m. to 1:30 p.m. Monday through Friday, and for dinner from 5 p.m. nightly. Phone 667-6207.

Macadamia Nut Chiffon Pie

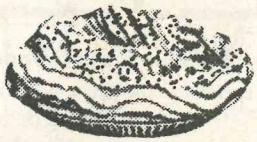
1 10-inch pie shell, baked
1 Tbs. unflavored gelatin
½ cup plus 2 Tbs. sugar
¾ cup macadamia nuts, chopped
¼ tsp. salt
¾ cup milk
4 eggs, separated
1 tsp. vanilla extract
1 cup whipping cream



Mix gelatin, salt and ¼ cup sugar in sauce pan. Beat together egg yolks and milk; stir into gelatin mixture. Over medium heat, stir and cook gelatin until it is thoroughly dissolved. Chill, stirring occasionally, until mixture is partially set. Beat whipping cream until stiff. Fold in 2 Tbs. sugar. Beat egg whites until soft peaks form. Gradually add ¼ cup sugar, beating to stiff peaks. Gently fold in gelatin mixture, ½ cup whipped cream and ½ cup chopped nuts. Fold in vanilla extract. Pour into pie shell. Chill at least 12 hours. Spread with remaining whipped cream and top with remaining nuts. Serves 8.

Papaya Seed Dressing

1½ cups soybean oil
1½ cups Wesson Oil
½ cup wine vinegar
Pinch MSG
Pinch Thyme, Chervil and Marjoram
1 Tbs. Dijon mustard
2 Tbs. sugar
1 Tbs. ground pepper
4 Tbs. ground dried papaya seeds
Lemon juice to taste

Combine all ingredients. Makes one quart.

Cool, comfortable aloha wear from Hilo Hattie's Fashion Center in Lahaina makes seeing the sights on the beautiful Island of Maui more fun. Be sure to stop by to see their colorful pareaus being put together, and to choose from the more than 10,000 Island fashions offered at substantial savings.

Sightsee In Style With Hilo Hattie's

Tropical lifestyles are best enjoyed in tropical attire. When in Hawaii, that means Hilo Hattie's, a name that represents the best in aloha wear.

Hilo Hattie's is the forerunner of the colorful and versatile muumuu, the loose-fitting dress introduced to Hawaii by the missionaries. Today's muumuu may be long or short, with sleeves or without. It may be casual or formal, printed in a bright tropical design or trimmed demurely with lace. Patterns and fabrics are incredibly diverse. Without a doubt, the muumuu is the most versatile of Island fashions and appropriate for almost any occasion.

The smartly tailored, breezy aloha shirt shares the same popularity. Hawaii's men find its informality very appealing, for business and social occasions. Paired together in matching fabric, the muumuu and aloha shirt are a dynamic combo for kamaainas (residents) and visitors alike.

Hilo Hattie's also features a full line of colorful swimwear, sportswear, blouses, accessories, gifts and souvenirs. Altogether, more than 10,000 Island fashions for the whole family are showcased at their factory plant located at 1000 Limahana Place in Lahaina, where you can see colorful pareau (Polynesian wrap dresses) in the making on a fascinating, free tour from 8:30 am-5 pm daily. More than 1 million visitors have enjoyed this tour and the substantial savings offered by shopping factory-direct. Free alterations (with same-day hotel delivery) are part of the service, and visitors also receive a complimentary lei greeting and cool refreshments. Free round trip transportation in the Lahaina and Kaanapali areas is also provided seven times a day.
